Tin Mountain Trustees, Volunteers and Supporters

Tin Mountain Conservation Center fosters a deep appreciation for our environment among children, adults and families through hands-on programs in schools, at summer camps, and throughout the community. Over the past thirty five years, Tin Mountain has provided quality programs to more than 30,000 individuals.

Silent Auction and Cash Bar 5:00 PM

Live Auction 6:30 PM

Dinner 7 PM

Live Music Thanks To: Mountain Top Strings

Welcome to the Auction!

Make sure your name, address and telephone number appear on the top and bottom of your assigned bid card. The number on the bid card is your unique bid card number. Keep this card with you throughout the event. Even if you think you may not bid-keep your bid card, you may see something that changes your mind!

All items are on display for viewing. Some items on the tables not listed in this pamphlet arrived after print time. Be sure to check out our Raffle located at the Tin Mountain membership table. See following page for details.

Silent Auction

Silent auction items have bid sheets on the tables. If you want to bid on a silent auction item, write your bid number and the amount of your bid on the corresponding bid sheet (names are not tallied, only your personal bid numbers).

Closing of silent auction tables are announced.

Live Auction

Our live auction starts at 6:30 PM. It is a fun event enlivened by George Cleveland.

If you want to bid on a live item hold up your card.

To Collect Your Winning Bid

At auction close, bring your bid number to the cash out table in the hall. Your purchases will be tallied and volunteers will be available to help gather your items.

All sales are final at the highest bidding price.

Payment

All items must be paid for and taken home tonight. For your convenience, we accept: cash, checks, Visa, Mastercard, and Discover.

We appreciate your support!

The Tin Mountain Conservation Center Staff and Board of Trustees
