Silent Auction and Cash Bar 5:00 PM
Live Auction 6:30 PM
Dinner 7 PM

Welcome to the Auction!

Make sure your name, address and telephone number appear on the top and bottom of your assigned bid card. The number on the bid card is your unique bid card number. Keep this card with you throughout the event. Even if you think you may not bid-keep your bid card, you may see something that changes your mind!

All items are on display for viewing. Some items on the tables not listed in this pamphlet arrived after print time. Be sure to check out our Raffle located at the Tin Mountain membership table. See following page for details.

Silent Auction

Silent auction items have bid sheets on the tables. If you want to bid on a silent auction item, write your bid number and the amount of your bid on the corresponding bid sheet (names are not tallied, only your personal bid numbers). Closing of silent auction tables are announced.

Live Auction

Our live auction starts at 6:30 PM. It is a fun event enlivened by George Cleveland. If you want to bid on a live item hold up your card.

To Collect Your Winning Bid

At auction close, bring your bid number to the cash out table in the hall. Your purchases will be tallied and volunteers will be available to help gather your items. All sales are final at the highest bidding price.

Payment

All items must be paid for and taken home tonight. For your convenience, we accept: cash, checks, Visa, Mastercard, American Express and Discover.

We appreciate your support!

You Are Invited to Tin Mountain's Family Programs Open House Sat April 7th, 1-3 PM at the Nature Learning Center

*Young Mountain*eers nature club, monthly Family Nature Programs, and Naturalist in a Pack backpacks have greatly expanded youth and family offerings at Tin Mountain Conservation Center. Tin Mountain summer camp has always offered great outdoor experiences for children in the area, but the additions of these new family programs and projects provide even more outside activities for children and families. To kick off spring and better share these opportunities with the public, Tin Mountain is hosting a Family Programs Open House on Saturday, April 7th from 1-3pm at the Nature Learning Center in Albany. Come join the fun! Tin Mountain's Family Programs are sponsored in part by the Gibson/Woodbury Charitable Foundation and the Goldberg Charitable Foundation.

Mark Your Calendars! Tin Mountain Annual Meeting Sat, May 19, at the Nature Learning Center

Martha Pinello of Monadnock Archeological Consulting in Antrim, NH will be the speaker this year at Tin Mountain Conservation Center's Annual Meeting on Sat, May 19th at the Center in Albany. Martha is Principal Investigator at Monadnock Archeological Consulting and has a Master's Degree in anthropology and history from UMass-Boston and over three decades of experience working on historic sites throughout New England. She served for many years as Chief Archaeologist at the Strawberry Banke Museum in Portsmouth, NH, and has special expertise in paleoethnobotany and landscape archaeology. Martha will bring her skills to Bald Hill in Albany to speak about the early settlement in the Moulton-Allard neighborhood and visit a nearby few historic sites.

Thank you for your support!
