

Tin Mountain Conservation Center Winter Camps 2015
Nature Learning Center, Albany

Winter Survival,
Tuesday, February 17, 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM
Grades 3-6

Do you think you could light a fire, build a snow shelter, or boil water for cooking to survive the winter cold? Learn the basics of staying warm in winter. Dress warm and bring a lunch, and small snow shovel for digging snow shelters. We'll provide cocoa and snowshoes. Cost: $35 Members, $45 Non-members

Tracking Winter Wildlife
Tuesday, February 18, 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM
Grades K-3

It's a winter treasure hunt! Become a winter wildlife detective as we count toes, identify patterns, and follow animal tracks in the snow throughout the forest and around the pond, streams, and swamps. Dress warm and bring a lunch. We'll provide cocoa and snowshoes. Cost: $35 Members, $45 Non-Members

Family Winter Festival
Thursday, February 19, 3-7:00
All Ages

Bundle up and head over to the Nature Learning Center with the family for an afternoon and evening of winter fun. We will be snowshoeing, looking for animal tracks, winter birds, and signs of mammals. The evening will culminate with a campfire complete with stories, and marshmallows. Pizza dinner provided by Frye's Store. Cost: $5/adult, $3/child, $15/family

Winter Art
Friday, February 20, 9:00 AM-3:00PM
Grades 1-4

Come and celebrate the natural beauty of birch trees and create your very own birch tree painting and an adorable owl out of real birch bark! We will pick our own evergreen needles to make some funky porcupine snow sculptures and wonderful smelling balsam fir sachets. We will end the day making winter bird feeders out of recycled materials. Bring a lunch. We will provide snowshoes and hot cocoa. Cost: $35 Members, $45 Non-Members
